

Baker Perkins Archive

Collection Summary

Collection:	Baker Perkins Archive
Name of creator(s):	Baker Perkins Ltd
Reference code:	PAS/BP
Dates:	1874-2003
Size of collection:	29 boxes, 3 volumes and 2 files
Creator's history:	The origins of Baker Perkins Ltd stem mainly from Jacob Perkins who was born in 1766 and died in 1849, and, Joseph Baker, who was born in 1823 and died in 1892. Jacob Perkins founded Perkins and Co., Engineers in London, which was later continued by his son, and became known as A M Perkins & Son Ltd, incorporated in 1887. A company called Werner & Pfleiderer which were originally established in Stuttgart, Germany, also set up in London in 1885. In 1893 A M Perkins & Son Ltd amalgamated with Werner & Pfleiderer (London) and became Werner, Pfleiderer & Perkins Ltd. In January 1870, Joseph Baker took out a patent for the flour sifter he had invented in Canada and later came to London where, in 1876 a business was established with his sons. In 1902 the company was incorporated as Joseph Baker & Sons Ltd. Meanwhile, Werner, Pfleiderer and Perkins Ltd had moved their works to Peterborough, in 1904, and changed the company name to Perkins Engineers Ltd, in 1915. After working closely with Joseph Baker & Sons during the war years, the two companies merged in 1920 and became Joseph Baker Sons & Perkins Ltd. At this time they had factories at both Willesden and Peterborough. In 1923 the company changed its name to Baker Perkins Ltd, and a decade later in 1933 the Willesden factory moved to Peterborough where the entire production was then concentrated. In 1987 due to another merger, the company name was changed to APV Baker. The works remained at Westfield Road, Peterborough until 1991 when most of the production, machinery and staff were relocated to the new site in Paston, Peterborough. The printing machinery works were sold to the Rockwell Corporation. After further name changes in the late 1990s, the company became part of the Invensys group. On 1 April 2006 Invensys sold the company, and as a result the name was changed back to Baker Perkins Ltd.

Sub-collection: Baker Perkins Company, Inc. (Saginaw, Michigan, USA)

Series: Century Machine Company
Reference codes: PAS/BP/10/5
Dates: 1938-c.1940
Size of series: 2 files, 2 items and 1 bundle
Admin history: Baker Perkins Co. Inc. had bought the whole of the assets of the Century Machine Company of Cincinnati by 1929. During the Second World War they developed a portable field bakery, and manufactured thousands of them, for use wherever American troops were serving. For this they were given the Army/Navy Award. In 1955 the decision was made to liquidate the Century Machine Company, as the demand for medium-sized machinery which they specialised in, had diminished.

Detailed List

Sub-collection:	Other Companies (Non Baker Perkins)
Series:	Laundry Equipment

Item: Catalogue 'Laundry Machinery'
Reference codes: PAS/BP/14/4/5
Dates: nd
Size: 1 volume
Admin history: Aublet, Harry Ltd was founded in 1886 in London, but later moved to Peterborough where their premises were across the road from Westwood Works. They took over the laundry section of Summerscales Ltd, then after the First World War decided that their laundry department would be more prosperous under the wing of Baker Perkins. This acquisition by Baker Perkins took place in April 1924 and included the premises and plant.

Scope and content: Summerscales Ltd of Westminster, London. Pages have been inserted by Aublet, Harry & Co. Ltd 'successors to the Laundry Section of Summerscales, Ltd, Keighley'. Includes illustrations.

General note: This item is possibly dated before the acquisition by Baker Perkins and therefore has been inserted under Sub-collection 'Other Companies (Non Baker Perkins)'.
