What is good going?

Peterborough is the first city outside of London to be part of the good going campaign. It offers a pledge card for people and organisations to show their support for sustainable travel such as cycling, walking, public transport and car sharing.

What's in it for you?

Your good going card will entitle you to various discounts at a range of outlets in Peterborough such as walking, cycling and outdoor shops. Registering your pledge will also entitle you to free information on your travel choices in Peterborough, information about Travelchoice events and updates on offers to pledge card holders in Peterborough and London.

Register your pledge

To show your support for the good going campaign, simply register your card by one of the following methods:

- Complete the application form and post it using the prepaid addressed envelope or dropping it into a collection box located in Bayard Place, Town Hall or Bridge House receptions
- Visit our website www.travelchoice.org.uk – and look for the good going stamp
- Visit our Travelchoice exhibitions

Registering your card will entitle you to free updates on Travelchoice events and news about new offers in both Peterborough and London available to pledge card holders.
