

press the bell to stop the bus and stay seated till the bus stops just press the bell once if you know you are coming to your stop

when the bus stops, leave the bus. low floor buses have ramps which can be used by wheelchair users now may be a good time to find your return bus stop while you are out and about remember - do not give people your personal details, such as your full name and where you live if you need help or advice - find a safe stranger - someone in uniform, like a police officer, city street warden, security guard or travel centre staff

a friendly guide to how to catch a bus everything explained step by step

How To Communications

We design guides to support people by simplifying procedures, explaining choices and by giving information in a way that needs little or no words.

Everyone has a right to information but not everyone understands the written word. We support the right to know and strive to find new ways to express information without prejudice or patronisation.

For further information or comment please contact info@friendlyguides.co.uk www.friendlyguides.co.uk

Copyright and disclaimer.

All information presented in this document is deemed to be the copyright of How To Communications unless stated otherwise. Copyright is implied irrespective of whether a copyright symbol or a copyright statement is displayed.

The copyright of any information presented in this publication must not be infringed without the written consent of How To Communications.

How To Communications will take reasonable care in preparing the information presented here. However the fitness for purpose and the accuracy of such information is not implied and cannot be guaranteed. Anyone who uses this information does so at their own risk and shall be deemed to have indemnified How To Communications from any injuries or damages arising from such use.

TRAVELCHOICE
01733 747474 travelchoice@peterborough.gov.uk www.travelchoice.org.uk

Approved by

MENCAP
Understanding learning disability

 Stagecoach

© Copyright registered 2007