

You are here: > Home > News > Residents > Have your say on city pharmacies

The Peterborough Health and Wellbeing Board is asking residents for their opinions about pharmaceutical services in the city.

A consultation is running until 23 December 2017 for people to have their say on the quality and accessibility of pharmacies in Peterborough.

Every Health and Wellbeing Board in England has a statutory duty to publish an up to date statement that assesses the need for services in its area, otherwise referred to as a Pharmaceutical Needs Assessment (PNA).

People can give their opinion, and find out more information, by visiting the council's website www.peterborough.gov.uk/healthcare/pna (<http://www.peterborough.gov.uk/healthcare/pna>)