To collect money or sell articles for the benefit of charitable or other purposes on public land you require a street collection licence from us.

Application for street collections licence

Applications must be accompanied by a Letter of Authority from the Charity authorising the applicant to make a collection on their behalf.

Once the application has been checked, a licence number is issued in line with our procedures. A licence is issued containing all the relevant information, together with Form of Statement and the Official Badges for the Collectors.

Every promoter of a collection must exercise all due diligence to secure that persons authorised to act as collectors are fit and proper persons and to secure compliance by collectors within the regulations.

No promoter of a collection shall permit any person to act as a collector unless he has issued to that person a prescribed official identification badge and a collection box marked with a general indication of the purpose of the collection and a distinguishing number.

An administrative fee of £30.66 is applicable for the documentation of the license. You can either complete an application online (green button above) or by using the form (see right), if you have any questions, please email justin.beaumont@peterborough.gov.uk
