

You are here: > Home > News > Council > Voters are told to be alert to election offences

Voters in Peterborough are being urged to report election fraud in the city.

Peterborough City Council is working closely with Cambridgeshire Police to minimise the risk of election offences to ensure residents in Peterborough have confidence in the electoral system and feel able to use their vote freely without fear or intimidation.

Residents are being asked to be on the lookout for suspicious activity that could indicate an election offence is taking place.

Watch out if:

- > You receive any election mail addressed to people who don't live with you
- > Someone asks you to sign something to do with elections and you don't understand what it is
- > Someone asks to deliver your postal vote back to the council for you and it makes you worried

If you are suspicious or worried about anything to do with voting and elections you can report it to the election fraud hotline on (01733) 452277 or to the police on 101. If an incident is in action call the police on 999.