The world-renowned Pearl Izumi Tour Series (<http://www.tourseries.co.uk/home.php>) races back to Peterborough today (Tuesday 9 June).

Peterborough will host round nine of the event, with riders racing along the now familiar city centre route. Bourges Boulevard, Bridge Street, Church Street and Cowgate will all play host to a flash of technicolour as racers power past an expected crowd of spectators.

Road closures will be in place from 2pm and remain in place until around 9pm. Suspension of parking bays will be from 8am until around 9pm.

Bourges Boulevard will be closed to all traffic in a south easterly direction from the Crescent roundabout to the Rivergate roundabout. A diversion will be in place (the northern direction of Bourges Boulevard will be kept open)

The following roads will also be closed to all traffic:

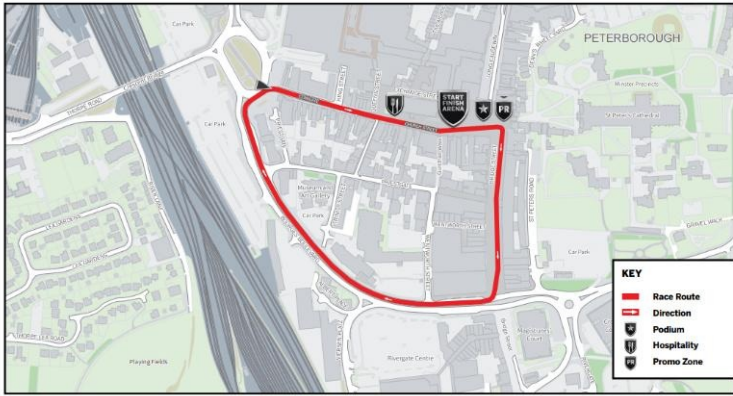

- > Upper Bridge Street
- > Church Street
- > Long Causeway
- > Cowgate
- > Wentworth Street
- > Priestgate
- > Trinity Street
- > Exchange Street
- > Queens Street
- > Kings Street
- > Cross Street
- > St Peters Road

As well as these road closures all parking bays, which includes limited waiting, disabled and loading bays, will be suspended from 8am until 9pm. The bays are located within:

- > Cowgate
- > Wentworth Street
- > Priestgate

A map of the race route is available to view below.
